Ability To Disguise Himself Is Notorious Among Police Officers

Since INS began publication March 13 of a series directing national attention to the FBI's list of "Ten Most Wanted" fugitive criminals, three of the desperadoes have been captured. Two of the top 10 public ene-mies-William Raymond Nesbitt, escaped murderer, and Orba Elmer Jackson, post office bandit—were nabbed as a direct result of the INS articles. FBI agents last week seized a third, Lee Emory Downs, veteran safecracker. Meanwhile, the FBI added the names of "Slick Willie" Sutton, bank robber, and Stephen William Davenport, murderer and jail breaker, to the "most wanted" list. Today, the name of Henry Clay Tollett. escaped convict, goes on the roster, again bringing the roll of "Most Wanted" fugitives to the meeting of the Bristol Suburban Baseball League held last night in the office of Paul C. Voltz, Bristol Pike. Tentative officers were se lected and plans discussed for the forthcoming season.

THREE TEAMS ARE REPRESENTED AT LEAGUE MEETING

The tentative officers are: President, Paul Voltz; secretary, George Dougherty; treasurer, Andrew Moore.

Officials of the circuit will seek several other teams for the loop, intending to make at least a sixteam league. There was talk that several teams are organizing but did not have enough time to decide whether or not to go into the league.

President Voltz has announced that another meeting will be held next Thursday night at his office and teams desiring to join the league should get in touch with him or be present at the meeting.

Teams represented last night were: Hibernians, Joseph Dolan; Voltz-Texaco, Paul Voltz; West Bristol, Kenneth Heath.
